| 2.3 | % of hotline calls responded to | 100% | 1 |

Contractor Comments:

With regard to the educational presentations, we have not included those to whom we have simply provided outreach materials rather than an actual presentation with the exception of the clergy. We scheduled (and re-scheduled) an educational session, however due to the low response rate we sent a package of educational materials to all local clergy members in lieu of a presentation.

Our records show that we did not make presentations to the DA/Victim Witness Advocate or the Police Dept. this year. The DA/Victim Witness Advocate was an unfortunate oversight and we will make every effort to correct this in FY03. Generally we make a presentation to the police at the beginning of the summer through the Team Nantucket program which is organized by the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber did not hold the event this year and by the time we were informed, it was too late to schedule a separate presentation. Again, we are already in the process of correcting this for FY03.

Contractor Comments: Many of the measures are not applicable to our program because we do not have a shelter and we did not safe home anyone this year. I have entered zeros in those fields that seem to apply only to the services provided as part of a shelter/safe home stay even though we do provide services such as advocacy and safety planning to our community based clients. We are located in a small island community 30 miles at sea. Though we continue to maintain an active volunteer safe-home network and make it available to people we serve in the community as well as people from off-island, it has not been utilized for reasons ranging from difficulty getting to the island to the client's decision to stay with friends or family. We have helped a number of women and children to relocate to shelters off-island without using our safehomes. We have been focussing on providing education, advocacy and counseling in the community.

* Total # of program consumers FY02 goal = 110, actual outcome = 164

* In Jan 02 Bay Cove Center, MBES, and Gill Rehab revised the referral process to MBES, resulting in a drop in the actual number of consumers referred and moved (1.4, 1.5)

* Due to definitions used re: assessment (1.3) actual outcome will appear lower. Gill Rehab will re-design/re-define of its implementation of assessments (1.3) in order to more accurately reflect assessments completed

Contractor Comments: 4% of parents did not return the survey and therefore we have no data to report on these families.

Regarding items 1.4a&b we find that almost half of our incoming families come to us seeking subsidized care with little understanding of the options available in the commonwealth. Sometimes these families are newly closed DSS cases who have not been properly transfered to income eligible slots. These families pose the most concern to us.

Contractor Comments: Another 27.6% of the children had signed IFSPs within the 45-60 day period. Often the holdup is due to the family's issues, not the program's (cancellation of assessment or intake most often). Multiple staff openings also affected timelines. This figure is an improvement over last year.

| Measure Number | | Goal | Actual Performance |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1.1 | Outcomes | 18 | 18 |
| 2.1 | Enrollments | 13 | 13 |

Contractor Comments: During fiscal year 2002, the YPP program at El Centro del Cardenal successfully met its planned enrollment of 13 students. We started off the year graduating five students from the H.S. Diploma and GED programs. Our enrollments, however, were very low at the beginning of the year. In fact, by the end of the first quarter, Sept. 30th, we had only met 10% of new enrollments. We were at 50% for our outcomes. We attribute our lower enrollments to a lower pregnancy rate statewide, changes in personnel at our agency, and students who failed to complete their probationary period.

By the second quarter, we met 25% of our enrollment goals and 92% of our outcomes. In February, DTA made a contract amendment decreasing the number of required enrollments from 20 to 13, but raising our outcome objectives to 18 from 14. For the third quarter, we were able to consistently enroll two new YPP students per month, enabling us not only to meet our goal, but also to exceed it via the enrollment of an additional student. We met all outcomes with the high school graduation held in June.

We had a total of nine YPP mothers graduate this year. Three of these students participated in the Diploma Plus Program. Five students received their diplomas from Boston Public Schools, and one student received her GED Certificate.

We were fully staffed throughout FY02. In general, FY02 was a successful year for our program. YPP students participated in many different activities, such as, field trips to cultural and musical eventgs, health fairs, and college fairs. YPP students were also involved in the student council, cooking classes, training,and teleconference exchanges.

YPP graduates were successfully placed in colleges and training programs at JVA, Bryman Institute, Wentworth Institute of Technology, Bunker Hill Community College, Roxbury Community College, the Red Cross, and Urban College. Some of the students have completed training and are currently employed as a licensed practical nurse, a clerical worker, a medical biller, a dietician, and an account manager.

Outcome goals wer achieved by preparing YPP students to pass the GED exams; by preparing them to successfully enter and retain training and/or employment; and by preparing students to develop areas of competence that would result ind ocumentable progress outcomes.

Contractor Comments:

1.1 No placement of children in pre-adoptive homes resulted in permanent adoptions, because the placements are legal risk, and the children are not free for adoption yet.
1.5 A MAPP Training was done, but couples who attended either decided not to pursue adoption or requested a delay in their homestudy. Therefore, no home studies were completed within the 30-day period.
2.2 The two (2) children for whom we currently provide case management are still in pre-adoptive status, because they are not free for adoption. See 1.1.

| Measure Number | | Goal | Actual Performance |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1.1 | Consumers are employed measured by the total # of consumers who secured employment during the contract year (unduplicated) | 15 | 18 |

| 1.4 | Consumers are enrolled in education and/or job training measured by the total # of education and/or job training enrollments during the contract year | 2 | 1 |

Contractor Comments: While the program exceeded its goals for the year in employment, education numbers are low. Referrals are always for employment services as the DMH Site office refers clients for all education services elsewhere. Occasionally a client who has been referred for employment services may request assistance with locating education services from staff. This year only one person requested education services.

Contractor Comments: 1.1 - 1.4: For the first half of the fiscal year, the program did not receive a sufficient number of referrals from the DMH Site office to enable the program to operate at capacity. In fact, the program was operating at 25-30% below capacity for that time period.

1.3: Most referrals from the DMH Site office are for employment, not education, services.

The goal for Measure Number 1.2 was set too low for the individuals the program was designed to serve; a contract amendment has adjusted this goal upwards.

Expanation for 1.1,1.2,&1.3: Appointments are made with clients as soon as there is an opening. The majority of clients either don't show or keep rescheduling the appointment. Sometimes telephone numbers have been disconnected and it takes time for DSS to get in touch with the client. All this impacts the time it takes to fill a slot. DSS is aware or the ongoing problem. A log is kept on all referrals which notes when contact was made with the client and all communications, until the intake is completed.

Expenation for 1.10 & 1.11: There is no way to know the percentage of parent satisfaction because all questionaires are directed to OCCS and we never see them.

These 2 individuals accounted for most of the hospitalizations experienced in 1.2 above. Due to changes in the population of consumers that are currently being referred to Hawthorn, future goals for projections for this goal will be revised upward.
